

For most prisoners, the hardest period of their lives starts the day they are released

South Hampshire churches can be there to make a difference.

Volunteers are needed to help mentor prisoners being released to the Solent area.

A little of your time can have a big impact. Ex-prisoners need emotional support, practical help and sensible guidance. 48% will re-offend within one year of release. Having a mentor can help them rebuild their lives and give hope for a better outcome.

Helping ex-prisoners rebuild their lives

Consider how you could be used by God to make a difference in the life of someone needing to be supported rather than shunned. For more, see: www.newfoundations.cc

It has been a privilege to get alongside someone who has not been so fortunate as I have been. The outcome varies, but the blessing I receive never does. - David

Being a mentor has been immensely rewarding - seeing ex-offenders regain their confidence and bringing just to bring a little bit of hope into what seems like a hopeless situation. - Emma

New Foundations Community Chaplaincy is a registered faith-based charity. Send query or express interest here: info@newfoundations.cc